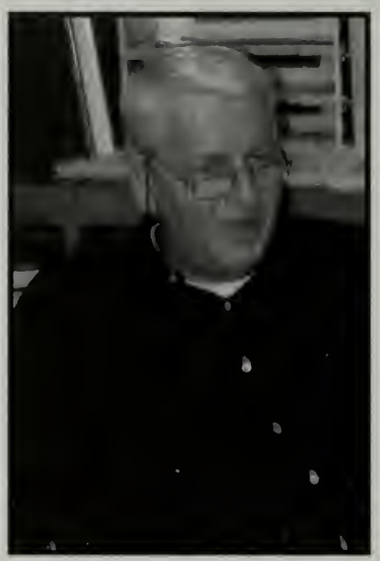
Mr. Winseck



The Class of 2002 proudly dedicates this year's Masacksic to Mr. Winseck. Over the course of many years, Mr. Winseck has loyally served the high school's history department and has been an influential part of many students' lives. Mr. Winseck's humor and dedication to scholarship will be remembered forever.

Just about anybody who had Mr. Winseck knows his approach to learning. Mr. Winseck instilled a sense of scholarship as well as responsibility in everybody he has instructed. Whether it was writing a term paper, taking one of his many pop quizzes, or doing one of the infamous DBQs, Mr. Winseck helped his students prepare not only for college, but for adulthood as well.He emphasized independent study and research (undoubtedly a skill which we will be thankful for one day). He treated and respected his students as adults, not merely ignorant students trying to learn. Mr. Winseck expected 110% effort from all of his students all the time, and as a result he gained the respect not only of his students, but of his fellow faculty members.

In addition, Mr. Winseck's soft spoken humor will never be forgotten. His commonly sayings such as "Just chill," "That's a stupid question," or "Pass them on down" will always be remembered by his students. Nobody will forget the time he threw a book out of the window after it was being used for studying a subject other than history. Mr. Winseck's classes were almost always entertaining. He had the ability to bring life to mundane material and capture the class's attention on topics such as Franklin Delano Roosevelt's administration. He helped us think about history not only in a scholarly manner, but with a touch of humor as well.

Mr. Winseck, you have been our teacher, and our friend. You have influenced the way we think and learn. For this and much more which can't be expressed in words, we thank you. You will always be remembered.

The Class of 2002

"New York is still here. We've suffered terrible losses and we will grieve for them, but we will be here, tomorrow and forever."
~Rudy Giuliani

"... World trade means world peace and consequently the World Trade Center buildings in New York ... had a bigger purpose than just to provide room for tenants. The World Trade Center is a living symbol of man's dedication to world peace ... beyond the compelling need to make this a monument to world peace, the World Trade Center should, because of its importance, become a representation of man's belief in humanity, his need for individual dignity, his beliefs in the cooperation of men, and through cooperation, his ability to find greatness."
~Minoru Yamasaki, chief architect of the World Trade Center

"During the Great Depression, when President Franklin Roosevelt told us that 'the only thing we have to fear is fear itself,' our nation was suffering the worst economic crisis of its history. The stock market crash led to tremendous numbers of unemployed Americans living at poverty levels, but as President Roosevelt realized, the greatest threat to our nation's stability and strength was the shadow of fear which had darkened the spirit of America ... His warning of a 'nameless, unreasoning, unjustified terror which paralyzes needed efforts to convert retreat into advance' applies as strongly now as ever before. Now is the time to move forward with our lives and with the rebuilding of our City, and we should not give in to the fear that threatens to stand in our way."
~Rudy Giuliani

Senior Class Advisors

Your four years at Longmeadow high School have passed quickly. Hopefully they have been filled with fun times and fiendships, and you have made memories that will make you smile for many years to come. You are done! Your time here is finished . You have worked long and hard to get here. As one chapter ends, the next one begins. You are all going in different directions. You will bring with you the lessons you have learned and the frienships you have made. Are you prepared to meet the next challenges that arise? That is up to you. Your teachers and your families have worked hard to prepare you. Ultimately, only you can define success and decide if you will find it.

You are a special group of people. Mr. Winseck said it best when he labeled you "the class with class." As a whole you are a cohesive unit. However, the whole does not overshadow the individual personalities that have come through in the classroom, at school functions, on the athletic fields, in the arts, and in the community. Mrs. Guistina and I have enjoyed working with you over the past four years. Through many activities and different venues we had the chance to meet those of you we didn't have in class. We feel fortunate to have met you both in and out of the classroom. Don't stop believing in yourselves. May you continue to find success.

Sincerely,

Ms. Butler and Mrs. Guistina

Senior Class Officers

The end of the beginning has come: the conclusion of the first chapter in our lives. Being together as a class for these four years will certainly be one of the most memorable aspects of our "first chapter." From our first dance as freshmen to the prom we will have experienced more fun together in the span of four years than any other period in our lives. Leaving each other and going our separate ways will be a difficult task, though one which will surely be rewarding ($$$). We are on our own now, free to explore the world and what it has to offer, free from the restrictions of our parents and of the confines of high school. We are set loose to make our own choices (now that's a scary thought!) and to take the first steps towards becoming mature responsible adults. For some of us, this change and departure from high school will be an emotional experience, while for others it will be a huge sigh of relief - "Ahhhh, no homeroom at 7:30." As your class officers, we wish each and every one of you the best of luck in your endeavors, and a smooth transition into the next chapter of your life.

Sincerely,

Ryan, John, Andrew, Sarah, and Dan

"There's things I remember and things I forget, I miss you, I guess that I should. 500 miles away, what would you change, if you could? I need a phone call. Maybe I should buy a new car. I could always hear the freight trains if I listen real hard. I wish it was a small world, cuz I'm lonely for the big town. I'd like to hear a little guitar. It's raining in Baltimore but everything else is the same."

Matthew Kranz

65 Hillcrest Ave.

When you get what you want in your struggle for self, And the world makes you king for a day, Just go to the mirror and look at yourself, And see what that man has to say. For it isn't your father or mother or wife, whose judgement upon you must pass, The man whose verdict counts most in your life, Is the one staring back from the glass. Some people might think you're a straight-shooting guy, And call you wonderful, But the man in the glass says your only a bum, If you can't look him straight in the eye. He's the fellow to please, never mind all the rest, For he's with you clear to the end, And you've passed your most dangerous test, If the guy in the glass is your friend. You may fool the whole world down the pathways of years, And get pats on the back as your pass, But your final reward is the heartache and tears, If you've cheated them man in the glass. Be yourself for once."

Those Memoriable Days...

The school year began just as it always does. The seniors were excited to be seniors, until they found out how big of a task applying to college was. Then came the senior activities. The juniors entered the year not believing the common saying of "Junior Year is the toughest year." They soon saw this was true, when teachers began loading on the homework and SATs came. Sophomores just sat back and relaxed because they weren't freshman anymore. Slightly skiddish, the freshman joined the high school, but it wasn't long before they too felt comfortble and began to enjoy their high school experience.

Oklahoma

This year our senior class put on Oklahoma. At first we thought that we were going to put on Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, but after many problems, we chose Oklahoma. Oklahoma is set in the Western Territory soon after the turn of the 20th century. The simple tale is concerened with whether the handsome cowboy or the menacing field hand will take Laurey to the box social. Our version of the classic play was a great success. We put in a lot of hard work and a great amount of time.

This year has been amazing for the forty-seven member select ensemble. After performing three pieces at the Winter Concert, the group set off to find one more piece to add the the two they already performed. Keeping "Ballo" and "Incantion and Dance," they chose a third, "Festivo," and these are to be performed at Carnegie Hall. On March twenty-eighth, the Wind Ensemble will play for four judges as one of the few select ensembles chosen to play for the National Band Festival. Mr. Michael Mucci, the conductor of the group is excited for the performance, as it will not be his first time conducting at Carnegie, but with a different group. Each member hopes to do well, and looks forward to a weekend in NYC. As for the Major Works Concert, they will begin to search for repetoir shortly after the trip to Carnegie. It has been an extremely promising year, which makes the future look bright for the Wind Ensemble.

Orchestra had a great start to this school year. The Winter Concert was very successful. For the first time the Symphony Orchestra took part in the Pop's Concert, playing a compilation of songs from Gladiator. The piece was very moving and was enjoyed by an eager audience. The Major Works Concert was also a great concert for the group. Hard work and dedication paid off.

Lyrics

In Alphabetical Order: Hillary Allen, Jasmine Amegan, Katrina Art, Brandon Bayman, Naomi Berezin, Matthew Bernadis, Sean Boutin, Lizz Brawders, Francesca Buscemi, Carly Chase, Francesco Daniele, Jason Dunn, David Ernst, Beth Gordon, Heather Gray, Adam Haselkorn, Chris Hicks, Russell Hill, Troy Hill, Gaby Israel, Rachel Jackowitz, David Jangraw, Katie Manzi, James Martin, Clark McCarthy-Miller, Becky Michael, Ryan Mullen, Jim Pacella, Rachel Parzivand, Courtney Pearson, Janet Pholi, Colleen Rafferty, Andrew Ratner, Scott Rousse, Kerry Shea, Jim Sullivan, Matt Sullivan, Jono Viamari, Erica White, Liza White, Jake Youmell

This year, the membership of Lyrics has changed because of the loss of many seniors in the graduating class last year. The Fourty-one member ensemble performs a variety of music, but mainly focuses on classical music. A piece entitled "Chichester Psalms" was performed at the Winter Concert, and at the Pop's they performed a version of Queen's, "Bohemian Rhapsody." For the Major Works Concert, the group performed Pizzettis, "Messa Di Requiem." This took a lot of practice and long, late night rehearsals. Lyrics as well as other groups from around the state competed in the MICCA competition in April of 2002. This year, rather than going to Italy Lyrics traveled north to Quebec City, to perform with other ensembles from Connecticut. Lyrics has had a very productive year with the help of conductor Peter Thomsen and pianist Abby Thomsen.

Janet Pohli and Jake Youmell exit the auditorium after their first performance of the 2001-2002 concert season. (Below)

The fourteen-member ensemble has grown to become a full year commitment, with rehearsals every Tuesday from Seven-thirty until nine at night. This is the second year that this group has worked like this. In the past I Cantori met three times before the Winter Concert, and only performed at that one concert. Now the group performs at The Winter, Pop's and Spring Concert. The group performs jazz and madrigal music. At the Winter Concert the group performed a piece with a guest performer, Amos Shemish, on the spanish guitar. The crowd was brought back to the past years of Disney World vacations, when the group performed "Zip-A-Di-Do-Da." David Jangraw, a member of the group, also made a contribution, by arranging a piece for the Spring Concert, called "Hit the Road Jack." The ensemble also performed an acappella version of the jazz hit, "It Don't Mean A Thing." Being the most selective group in the school, tryouts are held every year for Lyrics members, each student must show commitment and dedication to the music.

The 2001-2002 Jazz Ensemble began the year with a wonderful performance at the Pop's Concert. They performed challenging pieces such as Nat Adderley's "Work Song" and David Caffey's "A Minor Excursion." They also performed two Duke Ellington pieces that featured senior Ryan Foss and junior Josh Shnider. This group consists of many talented musicians, including All State guitarist, freshman Doug Ratner. The Jazz Ensemble will end the year with the Spring Concert. It will be hard to loose so many wonderful graduating musicians in the ensemble. Hopefully next year will be as successful as this year. The music of the Jazz Band is enjoyed and applauded by the enthusiastic audience of the Longmeadow community. The concerts are so well attended that the fire department almost had to shut down the auditorium because the amount of people in the auditorium was a violation of the fire code.

This year the Pep Band had a great playing season. Conductors Susie Moore and Erin Riley did the best they could to make the band sound great. With nice weather and the Lancer football team being so successful, it was a great year to be a member of the band. Throughout the games the audience could hear "Cheerleader Strut," because of the endless amount of touchdowns. The gigantic group was very enthusiastic and showed that they had a lot of school spirit and Pep!!

FOOTBALL

The 2001 Lancer Football team had one of the most successful seasons ever, ending the season with a top 10 state ranking and a 10-1 record. The squad, led by Senior Captian Andrew Dikan, made their fifth consecutive Superbowl appearance, setting a state record. They were also the first team in LHS history to win the AA Conference going undefeated in regular season play. Outscoring opponents 467-110 over the entire season, the team's highlights included a 36-18 home win over rival Central, and a 60-0 rout over Cathedral. Other key varsity players were Seniors Mike Bazos, Brian Hubbard, Dan McKenna, Chris Basile, Bryan Wright, Marcus Gaines, and Chris Nuzzo as well as Juniors Brett Holm and Jim Pacella. The Junior Varsity and Freshmen teams also had very successful seasons, going 19-1 combined. With many strong retunring players on both offense and defense, Lancer Football will be a strong tradition for years to come.

CHEERLEADING

Under the guidance of Coach Diaz and captains Mary Angelides, Kelly Cline, Kelly Packard and Jenna Fusaro, the LHS Cheerleading Team led an impressive season. Finishing first in their conference, the team won the honor of representing Western Mass. at the National Championship in Orlando, Florida. The team provided inspiration to the school and supported the other teams. Other key members were seniors Sarah Tivolli, Lizz Brwders and Mary Kate Blakeman who helped lead this exceptional squad.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year we had about 80 people who showed great determination and enthusiasm toward the season. The team placed 5th in our division under the guidance of Coach Sam Iturrono and Assistant Coaches Charlie Casartello and Donna Lyons. The team finished the season with a respectable record of 7 and 7. Next year looks promising as many runners will be returning and with the help of such great leadership, the team will prove to be a threat in Western Mass once again.

SOCCER

By Greg Waryasz

Led by the new coaching of Brent Dillard, the varsity set out with high goals. Junior captains Francesco Danielle, Jeff Harrelson, and senior captain Greg Waryasz along with seniors Jeff McCormick, Aaron Morse, Ellis Reavey, and Bevan Weissman used their leadership qualities to lead a team comprised mostly of juniors and sophomores. Strong defense and sophomore goalie Mike Kerstein recorded 4 shutouts while yielding only 24 goals in 15 games. The varsity finished with a 4-7-4 record and always stepped up to the competition. The Lancers tied playoff teams Cathedral and Chicopee, while beating Amherst and West Springfield. The team showed signsof brilliance for years to come with 14 underclassmen, 10 of who started many games. Although the team goal of a championship season was not met, the team bonded and will share life long experiences.

Captain's Quote
Greg Waryasz : "You win some, you lose some. It's a problem when you accept losing. Our team accepted nothing less than victory. We learned a lot about the game we love and we have wonderful memories. We left a lot of sweat and blood on the field. I'm proud to be the captain of such a hard working bunch of guys."

SOCCER

The Womens' Soccer team had a wonderful season, beating some very tough opponents. With the help of Coach Russatto and Coach Butler, the team went on the Western Mass. tournament. The team finished the season with an impressive record of 9-7-1. Key senior players included seniors Kerry O'Malley, Courtney Wagner, Katie Neil, Jodie Boyle, Erin Riley, Jessica Gibby, Katie Flynn and Anna Lusardi, who all provided leadership on and off the field. The future for the team looks bright as many excellent juniors and sophomores will take over the team in the coming years. Congratulations on a successful season.

FIELDHOCKEY

This year both junior varsity and varsity field hockey had wonderfully successful seasons. The junior varsity team, lead by captains Tiffany Ronen and Emily Steingart, ended up with a winning season. The varsity team did the same. With five freshmen on the team, and only 7 returning starters, this team came a long way. Lead by coach Ann Simons, a coachof over twenty years, and captains Sarah Krill and Kate Holden the teamfinished with an 11-4-3 record. After an intense rivalry for the league title, the lady lancers brought it home. The

VOLLEYBALL

This season both junior varsity and varsity volleyball teams had wonderfully successful seasons. Varsity, lead by Coach Rita Hawker and senior captains Katie Comptain, Susie Moore, and Meg Talbot finished with a winning record. Varsity made it to the western Massachusetts tournament, as well as defeating the previously undefeated Putnum high school team. The varsity athletes came together to form a very powerful group full of enthusiasm, positivity, relentless offense, and strong defense. This years junior varsity team was full of promise and potential for the seasons to come.

GOLF

The Lancer Golf Team's season was full of success. Lead by captain Derek Hurwitch and Coach Roy, the team finished with a 12-8 record. The team was full of talented, enthusiastic athletes making for a very positive experience. All members, through a lot of hardwork, qualified to compete in the Western Massachussetts Tournament. Derek Hurwitch was also selected as an All-Scholastic golfer by the Sunday Republican. The team improved greatly from last season, and the momentum should continue through next year. Despite the loss of many talented seniors, including George Ferrel, Afsheen Khosrojerdi, Andrew Sherman, Steve McGorry, and Derek Hurwitch, next year's team outlook is nothing but positive.

BASKETBALL

This year's varsity Lancer basketball team was full of success, talent, and hardwork. Lead by captain and powerhouse John Williams, the team ended with a 14-8 record. The strong point of the team was the relentless offense lead by John Williams and Ariel Weekes. Along with such a powerful offense was an unstoppable defense. George Ferrel, Andrew Fortune and Matt Russo lead the defense. Another highlight of the season was John Williams exceeding the 1,000 point mark. In tournament play, the team made it to the semi-final game against Pittsfield. It was a very competitive game, yet unfortunately the Lancers lost by only 1 point with a few secongs remaining. Despite the loss of much talent and enthusiasm from the graduating seniors, the Lancers will carry the positive momentum through next season.

BASKETBALL

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team was lead by co-captains Brittney Rothweiler and Jody Boyle. The year had many ups and downs, but overall was remembered for its many successes. Senior Brittney Rothweiler exceeded the 1,000 point marker during the middle of the season, through her amazing three point shot and talented ball handling skills. One of the highlights of the season was the team's close win over rival, Cathedral high school. However, in the semi-final game for the Western Massachusetts title, the lady Lancers lost to Cathedral. The team finished with a 14-8 record. Despite the losses of powerhouse Brittney Rothweiler, Jody Boyle, and many others, including Katie Neil Lisa Shephard and Maggie Doyle, the team's outlook is very positive for next season.

SKIING

This year we had a very intersting season. The snow failed to fall this year, making our practices and races very challenging. Despite this, we as a team practiced hard and skied our best. Our team captains Courtney Wagner, Tommy Meehan, and Tanner Williams were supportive and encouraging. The boys and girls teams worked very hard and were both successful, which is shown in the girls team making it all the way to second place in Western Mass. This year we were lucky enough to be joined by many new skiers, making our team near 40 racers. Overall, this year we improved our racing skills and made friendships with many new underclassman. Despite the long bus rides, late nights and little to no snow, we did our best and had a great time, for racing is a thrill of excitment.

SWIMMING

The womens' swim team ended its season strongly with an excellent record of 11-1. Unlike last year, we had three captains, Kate Holden, Natalie Levine and Chelsea Paar. Desire, dedication and pride are all responsible for the improvement our team made for season. All of the swimmers shaved seconds off their best times. Teamwork helped the team defeat Northampton. The team's hardwork and dedication was evident in their last meet of the season against East Longmeadow. Losing by only one point was unfortunate, but proved that the girls really stepped up and did their best. Eleven girls were sent to the Western Mass. championship and they came home with third place. Senior Marie Hemmelgarn and sophomore Laura Marinelli helped the team out with many difficult dives.

WRESTLING

This year's wrestling season was wonderfully successful. The team finished with a 12-4 record, one of the best records in recent history. The season was full of hardwork, dedication and determination. Lead by senior captains Ryan Foss, Dan Shapiro, Chris Hicks and Chris Basile, the team was full of potential and enthusiasm. Seniors Ryan Foss and Dan Shapiro won the Western Mass Championship for their weight classes, also placing among the top five in States. Chris Basile also placed in the top five at the State Tournament. Despite the loss of many seniors, next year's team looks full of talent and success.

HOCKEY

This was a season of almosts. Second place in the Berry Division, 1 point behind Westfield and a semi-final loss to Ludlow. The regular season included only one loss to a Division 3 team, and three ties. The highlights of the season were a 2-0 victory over Westfield, Division and Western Massachusetts Champions, and two close games against Cathedral. As a the team, the Lancers were unified and deep in talent. The strong goaltending play of Darren Duke was complemented by one of the best defensive groups in Lancer history, including Stefan Ayotte, Kent Graham, Vinny Santaniello, and captain Greg Waryasz. The offensive threat was provided by captain Jeff Beattie and Joey Furnari. The team allowed a league and Western Massachusetts low of 28 goals in 21 games. This year's team, though just short of a championship title was full of positivity and memorable moments.

Key Club International, Longmeadow High School's volunteer service group, has been improving our school and community since1967. The club is led by the following board members: Mark Diruzza, Neal Dugre, Mathew Galuska, Daniel Galuska, Timothy Garstka, Lisa Hoff, Catherine Landry and Nicola Platzer. The club is honored to have the following four members on the New England District Board: Sarah Bergeron, Rachelle Douillard-Proulx, James Maxwell and Jordana Starr.

Mrs. Browne makes cookies for a weekly bake sale.

With great leadership and participation, Key Club has successfully completed many projects in the local area, including walk-a-thons, gift collection for the under-priveledged and the putting up of hospital decorations. Projects happening here at LHS include decorations for the cafeteria, concessions at athletic events, parents' night and back to school night. Some of the club's larger projects are Parade of the Big Ballons in Springfield and Kids' Day. Healthy Kids Day and Long Meaddowe Days. The club works with other clubs in the area and the parent service organization, Kiwanis Club of Springfield. With over 100 members, hundreds of service hours are completed each year to improve our community. Each Key Club year ends in April with the District Convention.

Jet Jotter
By: Nicole Forrest

This year, the Jet Jotter, the newspaper written by students for students, attended the 36th Annual Scholastic Press Forum. Two of our staff members received individual article awards. We've worked very hard to get the school involved in writing, photographing and cartooning for the paper. Jason Seigal has done a great job of recruiting new people and keeping the paper interesting. Our advisor Mr. Cormier, who graciously took over for Mrs. Morse, has done an excellent job of keeping students focused on learning more about journalism.

The Rough Draft

The Rough Draft, LHS's comical newspaper, worked hard during the 2001-2002 school year. Co-Editors-in-Chief Amy Higgins and Will Lee worked as a team to publish the paper, focusing on both literary excellence and comical wit. Layout editors Alex Shebar and Greg Waryasz worked hard to put together the paper, while proofreaders Carol and Lisa Rosenberg made sure the paper was published free of errors.

Matt Higgins and Zach van Schouwen also put in many hours after school to put the finishing touches on the paper. The drawings by Jason Hwang and the spoof ads by Melinda Tang improved the visual aspects for the Rough Draft. The Rough Draft depended on the efforts of a strong staff including Carly Berezin, David Jacquin, Doug Duquette, Jason Seigel, Jeff Gerlach, Liz Ryan, and Jordana Starr.

Additionally, the Rough Draft would like to thank faculty advisor Mark Staples, who guided both staff and editors in story ideas and final layout.

Impressions

Impressions
By Heidi Tannenbaum

You are walking down the English hallway, on your way out of the building, when suddenly something catches your eye. You discover a room, the headquarters of Impressions, the literary magazine. Through the window you see a conglomeration of different types of people who are writing, reading, making posters...having fun! After being greeted by the many friendly faces of the staff, you become the next new member...This is the kind of scenario Impressions works to make a reality. This year, one of their main goals is to form a staff of diverse minds. Impressions has a quotation from Lawrence Ferlinghetti that delivers their message: "Poetry is the anarchy of the senses making sense." This quotation conveys to the school their goal of working together to bring different types of people together to make Impressions something everyone can enjoy. Co-editors-in-chief are Violeta de los Reyes and Heidi Shira Tannenbaum. A dedicated staff works many long hours making posters, reading submissions, and recruiting new members. Faculty advisor, Mrs. Linda McShane, helps to facilitate the energetic bunch and contributes her time and ideas to make the magazine a success. Thanks to all its members, Impressions is truly something for everyone to enjoy.

By: Jason Seigel

Eric Lesser takes care of business at the BPA's latest meeting.

The Business Professionals of America (BPA) club members experience profit-focus business operation along with participation in community service as well as learning and practicing proper business etiquette. Since its evolution, the club has focused on fundraising activities to finance members' trips to state and national Business Professionals of America competitions in workplace skills assessment.

The Annual Valentine's Day carnation sales, bread sales, bottle drives, and other such activities have all been successful due to good member participation and active support from the faculty and student body. The club's advisor, Mrs. Morse, as well as the club's new officers have been crucial to bringing organizational success. At the same time, the club's affiliation with the National Business Professionals of America has established new goals for the Business Department as well.

Jordana Starr, Amy Cowen, and Sarah Krill discuss new ideas.

Students Against Destructive Decisions

Kate Murphy and Madeline Cohen-Shrage embrace each other during an exciting S.A.D.D. meeting.

Students Against Destructive Decisions is a club that spreads the word about the consequences of abusing alcohol and drugs. Senior President Amy Green and Vice President Megan MacDonald have many programs to help make the student body more aware of these important issues. This year, we had a red ribbon donation project to help the September 11th disaster. We also had a lollipop sale on last Valentine's Day. Dring prom week we had fourth graders send postcards to seniors with pictures telling them not to use drugs and alcohol. One of the group's main goals is to put posters around the school to keep students aware of the dangers. The club meets in Ms. Wiseman's room to discuss how we can lessen the social pressure to drink and use drugs that exists among teenagers in the community. Anyone is welcome to join as long as they feel strongly about bringing this awareness to the student body.

Peers Are Listening and Supporting

Whenever you call, there is someone who will listen. PALS are trained at the beginning of the year the art of listening and counseling. Advised by Mr. Crumb and the student board, PALS has fund-raisers to pay the phone bills. LHS students enjoy helping students in the surrounding area and believe in volunteering their time. Each PAL volunteers one hour a week, plus an additional hour on a Friday night each month. Amy Cowen, a PAL, remarks that "PALS is a great way to support the community and help those going through their teen years." PALS is a young program, and will continue to grow.

Jenn Dikan gives her opinion at a meeting.

Stephanie Zwirello and Amy Green give peer support over the phone.

Latin Club

Latin Club

Every other Monday, a group of students gather with Mrs. Colgan in room 215 for Latin Club. The president is Caroline Ehersman. They discuss fundraising to go on field trips and decorate the room with scenes of Latin culture. In previous years, they have hosted the Juinor Classical League Convention. They hope to host and be a part of many similar events as everyone enjoyed learning and experiencing Latin culture through exhibits and lectures.

Deborah Sunter, Rachel Parzivand, Caroline Ehersman and Liam Carroll represent the 2001-2002 Latin Club.

AFS

The American Field Service is an organization that sends more than 1,900 U.S. students abroad to over 46 different countries each year and brings students from abroad to stay with more than 2,600 American families.

The AFS Club is a great way to meet people from around the world. Students meet LHS's foreign exchange students as well as others from around the area, and have the opportunity to host a student for the weekend exchange. Many club members participate in an AFS program or host an AFS student, but it is not a requirement for being part of the club. The only requirements are to be present at meetings, to come to events, and to have fun.

The club plans trips to local events with the LHS foreign exchange students, or holds events to inform the community of the programs AFS offers. The club holds fundraisers through bake sales and by running the children's games at Long Meddowe Days. The fundraisers help LHS students receive scholarships to go abroad as well as to help the exchange students to pay for extra things involving school, such as club events. They also fund the annual exchange weekend. In the spring, AFS students from other high schools in the area spend the weekend in Longmeadow, staying with AFS club members and coming to planned club events. The club also plays an important role in educating LHS students and the community about the opportunities AFS offers.

International Club

As a member of the International Club, Isaac Kim participates in a discussion about events in other parts of the world.

This year was very successful for the LHS International Club. Under the guidance of our faculty advisor, Ms. Toole and officers Melinda Tang (President), Geetha Mylvaganum (Vice President), Patricia Lin (Treasurer) and Neal Dugre (Secretary) we nearly doubled our membership to approximately 30 students. This year, we participated in the Harvard Model United Nations, representing Barbados and Myanmar. We are also participating in the Boston University Model United Nations later this year. At the conferences, members take on the political positions of their respective countries and try to come to a resolution that is agreeable for all parties involved in the dispute. We have also held several bake sales and will be face painting at Long Meddowe Days, as we do each year to raise funds for the conferences.

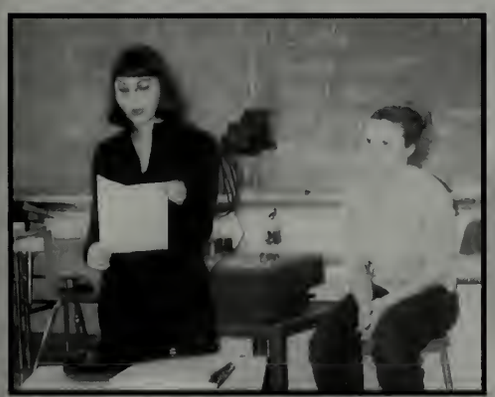
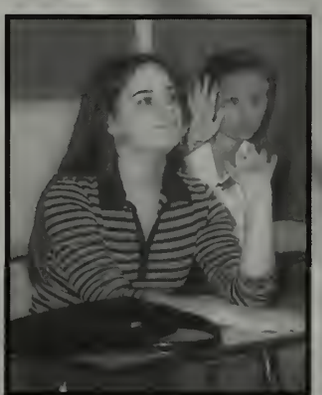
Amnesty International



President Rebecca Peskin updates fellow members as Jenn Ehrlich listens intently.

Amnesty International is a club concerned with the protection of human rights across the world. Amnesty members began letter-writing campaigns to key political leaders about their feelings against the death penalty. Amnesty members also sponsored a letter-writing campaign to politicians about their opposition to sweat shops around the globe.



Juniors Christina McLean and Caitlin O'Leary share their opinions at a weekly meeting.

Math Team

The 2001-2002 Math Team.

Math Team

The Longmeadow High School Math Team is open to all students at LHS. The team meets every Tuesday for the purpose of practicing competitive style questions and generating healthy and invigorating conversations. The questions presented to the competitors are the more thought provoking, bonus-type problems that can be visited in a regular class session.

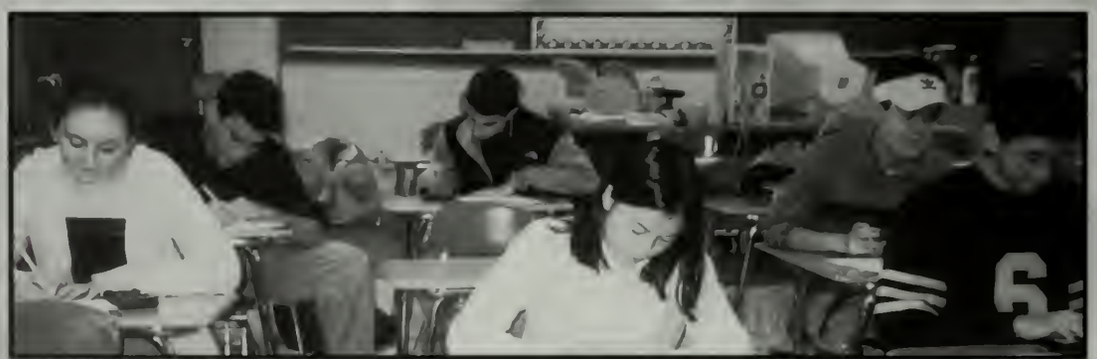
These students participate in a regional competition once a month for five months. The contestants are chosen for competition based on their results from the practices during that month. Six students are allowed to compete each month.

There are six rounds of competion: arithmetic and number theory, algebra I, geometry, algebra II, analytic geometry, and trigonometry and complex numbers. Each student competes in three of the six categories. At the end of all competitive categories, individual scores are totaled and subsequently, the team totals are noted. There is also a cooperative element to this competition and is offered twice during the competitive season. This is a team round. The Western Massachusetts Mathematics League (WMML) has approximately 20 high schools in each competitive season. There are six regions in Massachusetts. In April of each year, the top three schools of each region are invited to participate in the state competition. Longmeadow generally is invited to the state meet each year.



Galina Gurok, Anne Lin, Will Lee, Jason Hwang, Andrew Wernick, and Mike Kirstein toil over their latest Math Team exam.

As Schools Match Wits
By: Chris Breen

The As Schools Match Wits team meets weekly to review topics from sports to Shakespeare before tapings of the high school quiz show, later aired on 22 news at 7:30 p.m. on Saturdays. This year everyone appeared on at least one show to make a quite succesful first part of the season, despite what was shown on television. The team was awarded a third win against Simsbury High School because of a scoring issue that was not resolved until after the taping of the show. As a result, the team did earn a spot in the playoffs. The team is proud to have had a good showing, if not better than last year's finalist team. The outlook for next year seems promising. Freshman Keerthi Shetty and sophomores Adam Janes and Chris Breen will be returning. However, seniors Mike Klein, Liza White and Brian Goff will be missed as important assets to the team. Good luck at college!!!

Chris Breen shows the world that As Schools Match Wits is number one!

Mock Trial

Brian Goff zealously defends his side of a case at a mock trial.

Mock Trial

Longmeaodw's Mock Trial Team completed another successful year. Led by advisor Mr. Starr and the seniors, the team prepared to argue difficult cases and points about law. After much work and strategy, the team was ready for the trial to be played out in a real courtroom with an actual judge. This club gives students an opportunity to learn about the legal profession and lawyers and judges.

Debate Team

Debate Team
By: Eric Lesser

Debate Team proved to have a year of growth and challenges. With only two returning members, Longmeadow High School Debate did surprisingly well. Eric Lesser and Amos Shemesh served as captains. At the end of the season, Tom Koenings, Eric Lesser, Liam Carroll and Matt Higgins swept the first four spots in the novice category for the regional league. Longmeadow's teamholds a lot of promise as it looks towards next year.

Science League
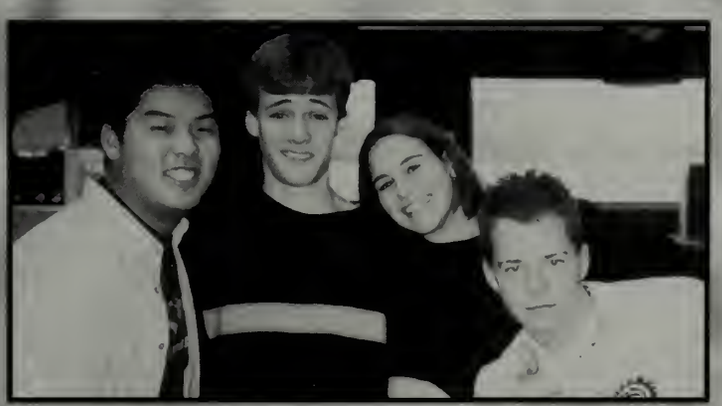
By: Bevan Weissman

Longmeadow's Science League has experienced another successful year under advisor Mr. Hirsch. Members meet every Thursday to discuss and plan for their upcoming events for future meets, which are held on the first Thursday of every month. The great variety of events to choose from lets anyone enjoy and participate in Science League, even if science is not your strong subject. Competitions are fun as well as educational, with opportunities to contribute to the team's success and then have a good time enjoying refreshments with fellow team members. The day-long state meet in early spring is a greatly anticipated event, as is the relaxing last meet of the year at Northfield Mountain. Longmeadow's Science League's continued growth will lead to much future success.

Jessie Sussman, Janet Kung, and Sara Gould are very excited for the Science Meet.



Isaac Kim, David Jaquin, Sari Linson, and Justin Henneman want you to join Science League!

Outing Club
By: Alison Basdekis

Led by J.R. Golen, the Outing Club experiences various outdoor quests including kayaking trips, numerous hikes, and the annual snow shoeing adventure which takes place i the beginning of March. The club welcomes anyone up for an adventure and allows those who appreciate nature and outing activities to broaden their experiences. With the success of last year's snow shoeing jaunt, consisting of an eight mile trek through Russell, MA's woods, the rustic living conditions of the Appalachian Mountain Club's cabin (no running water or electricity), daring night hikes and exhilarating midnight sledding, similar activities are in plac for the 2002 outing. As for spring plans, tackling portions of the Appalachian Trail is on the club's checklist. They also have hopes for more river activity by means of kayaking, canoeing, and/or rafting.

Annie and Marie Durfee hold on tight while they speed away.

Cool Runners Club

Cool Runners Club & Poetry Memorization Society

In only its second year, the Cool Runners Club and Poetry Memorization Society has achieved a legendary status. Its nimble athletes continue to haunt the lanes of Longmeadow with balletic grace and flawless incantations from the canons of classic verse. Quick as sunbeams off the glare of winter ice, they flicker across the landscape, while the young and elderly alike look on in dazzled awe. They are warriors against the ordinary, practitioners of elegance on the frosted fields of their delight, who breathe in silken rhythm as they float along the shadows of late day in unision. They are etched in the collective mind and will live on, a select citizenry of sublime spirits, wherever truth and beauty are whispered in the town.

Niki Platzer and Brigid Dean enthusiastically recite poetry as they run.

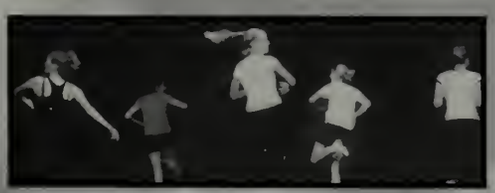
Dance Team

2001-2002 Dance Team

Dance Team
By: Katie Bielunis

Dance Team is a newly founded team by captains, Katie Bielunis and Callie williams. It found its niche in the school among dedicated and talented dancers. The dance team motivates and inspires each other in creating their dances based off of their original chorography. They practice a few days a week to prepare dance performances for such events as basketball games. The team's love of dancing has promoted them to great levels of success this year.



Practice makes perfect!

Unity Club

The Unity Club is an organization focused on celebrating diversity inside and outside of the school environment. With the help of their advisor Sandra MacDonald, the members of the Unity Club are involved in several different activities throughout the year in order to help in their community while showing their strength between students of different races, cultures, and ethnic backrounds. Previously named "Umoja" meaning "Unity," the club hopes to break down prejudice barriers and help eliminate stereotypes in order to make our school a more socially aware environment.

Gay/Straight Alliance
By: Lisa Rosenberg

GSA is the school's gay/straight alliance for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, and questioning students and their straight allies. The group works to fight homophobia and discrimination at LHS while also providing support and a forum for discussion during weekly meetings. This year they participated in organizing Diversity Week, went to workshops, conferences, and a performance of Rent.

Art Club
By:Elina Tochilnikova

Art Club is composed of a group of students who love various types of art and helping our school and our community. Art Club meetings consist of making plans for future events, drawing, painting, making collages, and holding contests, bake sales, and other activities. The purpose of Art Club is to help out the community through art, by painting bulletin boards, and boards to cover windows of broken down houses, to make them look more decorative and attractive. Two major events held by the Art Club have been the poster sales and the pumpkin carving contest.

Junior Elina Tochilnikova works on the club's latest project.

Anime Club

The 2001-2002 Anime Club.

Anime Club
By: Peter Cangiolosi

This club was started freshman year with the soul purpose of spreading the joy of anime to fellow students. In Japan, Japanese animmation is a huge form of entertainment. It would be great to see it become the same in America, but because it is very costly, many people don't get into it. The point of the Anime Club is to share the best anime available with the students of LHS. Although a lot of the time is spent watching anime, members also have parties, go on trips, watch anime related games, give away prizes, and answer many questions, including, "Why are the cartoons' eyes so big?" Members feel that these activities provide the best opportunities to enjoy anime. New members are welcome to check out the club in room 13 at 2:20 on Tuesdays.

Spanish Club

Spanish Club, restarted this year by a small group of enthusiastic students, has shown great promise in its first year. Members get together twice a month to speak in Spainsh, to discuss Spanish culture and to learn. Some special activities planned included having a bullfighter come in to speak, going out to a Spanish restaurant and watching Spanish movies. Students look forward to an even more succesful year to come.

Dave Jangraw, John Jordan and Dan Bernstien joyfully attend a monthly Spanish Club meeting.

By: Julia Ishak

2001-2002 members of F.A.I.T.H.

The F.A.I.T.H. Club, the acronym standing for Faith Alive In Today's High school, is an organization student interest has brought back to LHS this year. Open to everyone, it promotes fellowship, morality and spiritual growth through many enjoyable activities such as movie nights, field trips and the hosting of guest speakers. The goal of the club is to give every member the opportunity to explore and practice their own beliefs in a comfortable environment with other people of faith. So far, movie nights, an ice skating trip and morning meetings with snacks havebeen successes, as those who have attended have enjoyed themselves. The club plans to look into more field trips, dinner/movie nights and other fellowship activities, as well as methods of volunteering and fundraising. The club's current members are thankful to have the inspiring and enthusiastic Ms. Coyne as their advisor. The F.A.I.T.H. Club welcomes new members with open arms and is already becoming a special part of LHS as it continues to grow.

METCO

METCO
By: Sandra MacDonald

METCO is an acronym for the Metropolitan Council for Education Opportunities.

METCO has been the program of choice for minority families since it began in 1968. The METCO program has been the model for other states. The students begin the program in kindergarten and follow through to graduation. In the beginning the purpose of the program was to offer a solution to the problem of racial imbalance. The program has surpassed the original purpose some years ago. The METCO program does exist as a viable choice for minority families and benefits both the urban and the suburban communities that it serves. The ultimate goal of the program is to teach all children to live not by rules that are black or white, but a common golden rule.

All expenses including tuition and transportation are provided by the Massachusetts department of education. Once a child enters the school system, he/she is expected to meet its criteria both academically and socially. The METCO Program and its students have participated in every aspect of the school community. METCO has brought well received cultural programs to the schools. Ninety-seven percent of the students go on to four year colleges. The METCO program has added generously to Longmeadow's General Town Fund.

A Better Chance

A Better Chance
By: Jose Hernandez

The A Better Chance program in Longmeadow has been around for 26 years, and this year will mark its 27th year of service. This national program provides gifted inner city youths, mainly from New York City, with an opportunity to excel in school and obtain a high quality education at Longmeadow High School. The ABC scholars are removed from a difficult educational atmosphere to a more academically challenging one. Therefore, they have a greater chance of becoming successful. The scholars currently enrolled at Longmeadow High School are Richard Pearson (Sophomore), Marcus Gaines (Senior) and Jose Hernandez (Senior).

Jose Hernandez, Rich Pearson and Marcus Gaines represent the students of the 2001-2002 ABC.

Just what you think, is just what you are
The mold of a man is his mind.
And the thoughts that take place
Reflect in the face
The size of the soul hid behind.

You never can buy an innocent I
The mask of a saint is not sold.
You just have to live, to be and to see,
To build up a consciod of gold.

So make life a song - you're not living long
But while you're alive and can think.
Put into that mind - the best you can find
And from all that's poor proudly shrink.

The heart that can say to itself - All is Well
And beat with a passion of love,
Is the heart that has cought
The purest of thought
From the mind of the Man just above.

"Schoolbag in hand
She leaves home in the early morning
Waving goodbye
With an absent-minded smile
I watch her go . . .

I'm glad whenever I can share her laughter
That funny little girl

Slipping through my fingers all the time
I try to capture every minute
The feeling in it
Slipping through my fingers all the time . . .

She keeps on growing
Slipping through my fingers all the time . . .

Sometimes I wish that I could freeze the picture
And save it from the funny tricks of time . . .

Slipping through my fingers all the time."

— B. Andersson and B. Ulvæus

Too fast the seasons have flown by and you have matured from a sweet, thoughtful, and delightful little girl into a caring, confident, gifted, and capable young woman. Our hopes and dreams for you are without limit, but they are no more ambitious or compassionate than the goals you have set for yourself.

We have no doubt you can achieve anything. You have the drive and determination to make all your dreams come true.

We are very proud of you. We are inspired by you. We admire you. And most of all, we love you very, very much.

Mom, Dad, and Drew

"Every now and then we find a special friend,
